There are 7,000+ known rare diseases worldwide. Of these, 80% are genetic in origin, which affect an estimated 280 million people worldwide.

Pfizer Rare Disease wants to go beyond helping people manage their diseases, enabling them to thrive in every stage of life through a potentially transformational treatment approach called gene therapy.

Pfizer.com/RareDisease